Transportation To Marina Verolme

Airport: The nearest international airport is Rio de Janeiro-Galeão International Airport. There is only charter air service between Angra dos Reis and Rio de Janeiro. Most visitors go by land (car or bus); it takes approximately 2.0 to 2.5 hours to travel from Rio de Janeiro (along road BR-101) to Angra dos Reis.

Rental Car: Not recommended.

Bus: Buses run regularly between the city of Rio de Janeiro and Angra dos Reis. The bus stops at the main entrance of Marina Verolme, and from there it is about a 3/10-mile (500-meter) walk to the docks. The bus company from Rio de Janeiro to Angra dos Reis is Costa Verde Transportes (<http://www.costaverdetransportes.com.br/>). [Note: To get off at Marina Verolme's bus stop, the driver must be informed in advance.]

Private shuttles: We work with a trusted partner, Cesar Tour, that uses cars with a capacity of up to 4 passengers each and vans with a capacity of up to 10 passengers each. Upon request, our commercial team will schedule transfers for clients. However, clients are responsible for paying the driver directly at the time of service in local currency. Some of our frequent clients contact Cesar Tour directly, but we recommend allowing our commercial team to arrange the transfers in order to follow up.

Currency/Money

Currency: Brazilian real, plural is reais (R$, BRL)

Credit Cards: Visa and other international credit cards. In Angra dos Reis and Paraty credit card use is more difficult, especially in Ilha Grande. Carrying pocket money is recommended.

ATMs: There are a few ATMs close to the base. However, once on charter, it's more difficult find ATMs. Obtaining money at the airport or at one of the main banking centers (in Rio de Janeiro or Sao Paulo) is recommended.

Traveler's Checks: No.

Banking Hours: Mon.–Fri. 1000–1600 hours
