HOW TO GET THERE?

ACCESS BY PLANE

The easiest way to Dubrovnik from all parts of Europe during the tourist season is to fly. There are regular flights to Zagreb from almost every international airport in Europe.

TRANSFERS FROM AIRPORT TO DYC BASE DUBROVNIK

We can organize airport transfers to the marina and back on request.

ACCESS BY CAR

Via Zagreb: Use the highway to travel from Zagreb to Dubrovnik. It's 3.5 hours highway drive from Zagreb to Split (A1 Zagreb-Split highway) and then around 3.5 hours, depending on the traffic, from Split to Dubrovnik driving the non-motorway "Adriatic Magistral" road. If you chose to take the old sight-seeing road from Zagreb to Dubrovnik, it'll take you 9.5 hours. To avoid Split, turn left after Sinj, towards Trilj, and then turn right towards Cist Provo. Turn right towards Šestanovac and exit on the "Adriatic Magistral" road, just after Gornja Brela, which will take you to Dubrovnik.

Via Rijeka: If you're coming from Rijeka, drive along the coastal "Adriatic Magistral" road and take the highway for Split and follow directions described above.

ACCESS BY BUS

One of the cheapest ways to arrive in Dubrovnik is to travel by bus and Croatia has a well-developed national transport network of bus lines that reaches even the smallest of villages on the coast. The routes connect Dubrovnik to large cities in Croatia and run several times a day. Regular international bus lines connect Croatia to Austria, Italy, Hungary, France, Germany, Slovakia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and many more.

BY FERRY

Many people take the ferry to Dubrovnik, which is probably more comfortable and more affordable than the bus. The largest Croatian company is Jadrolinija, which has lines that hop from Rijeka to Zadar to Split, Hvar and then Dubrovnik throughout the year. There is also a good link to Italian ports (Bari and Ancona) if you want to cross over from Italy to Dubrovnik.

Travel from Dubrovnik to ACI Marina

You can easily travel from Dubrovnik to ACI Marina by bus, numbers 1A or 1B, and get off at Komolac (just after the INA gas pump). If you are driving, follow the signs for Gruz Harbour and then, after passing under the bridge, turn left at the first crossing. Travel straight ahead until you are in Komolac. The first road on the left is the entrance to the ACI Marina Dubrovnik.
