RESTAURANT SUGGESTIONS:

There are many great restaurants in Annapolis. You'll find most places pretty crowded, but worth the wait. A few of our favorites (off the beaten path) include:

Sam's on the Waterfront – Located off Edgewood Road in the Chesapeake Harbor Marina.

The Ebb Tide – Casual, local bar with great burgers. Drive out Edgewood Rd and turn left at the light (near Giant), and it's just on your right.

Vin 909 - Amazing farm-to-table restaurant. Wood-fired pizzas, great small plates. Beer & wine only. Wonderful atmosphere in the heart of Eastport.

Davis' Pub – A local hang-out, cheap food, cheap drinks (by Annapolis standards), and good fun. Outdoor seating, and ok for kids during the dining hours. 400 Chester Ave. across from Mear's Marina in Eastport.

Adam's Ribs – Excellent barbeque, reasonable prices. Located in the Eastport Shopping Center on Bay Ridge Ave. They also offer take-out service.

Rocco's – Great pizza & subs. Located in the Giant shopping center.

Lewnes' – Just about the best steak you'll ever eat. Pricey, but worth it. Reservations are suggested, especially on weekends. 410-263-1617, 401 4th St (at Severn Ave) Eastport.

Ram's Head Tavern – Food is excellent, but they're known for their extensive collection of draft and bottled beers from around the world. Located at 33 West St. just off Church Circle downtown. Reservations suggested, especially on weekends. 410-268-4545.

Joss – THE place for sushi, located 195 Main St. in Annapolis. 410-263-4688

Cantler's – Maryland Blue Crabs the way they're supposed to be. Rt 50 east to exit 29A. (Buschs Frontage Rd.) right on St. Margaret's Rd. left on Brown's Woods Rd., right at the "Y" to Forest Beach Rd. 485 Forest Beach Rd. 410-757-1311 (worth the trip).

Parking is limited in downtown Annapolis around the city dock. It may be simpler and more enjoyable to call the water taxi to pick you up at the marina.

P: 410-263-0033 (about $5 per person each way).
