AREA GUIDE

LOCAL AREA INTRODUCTION

Sailing the Balearic Islands gives you a vacation full of warm, sunny days, wonderful sandy beaches, fantastic sailing, dramatic scenery, charming ports and world-class nightlife.

Off the coast of eastern Spain, the Balearic Islands' archipelago is perfect for water sports fans, nature lovers and those seeking to relax on the beach while soaking up the sun.

The island of Mallorca has a rich history stretching back to the ancient civilizations of Greece and Phoenicia thousands of years ago. The region is a popular yacht charter vacation spot thanks to its premier cruising ground.

CURRENCY: Euro (EUR)

VOLTAGE: 220V

INTERNET

Generally, the Wi-Fi in most cities and towns in Palma de Mallorca and the Balearics is good. You'll find plenty of Wi-Fi hotspots at bars, restaurants, hotels and in the marina. Wi-Fi on board.

ENVIRONMENT

- Respect your surroundings and leave only footprints in the sand
- Only use the engine or genset when needed (fill up your tanks for the water maker at the docks when you can)
- Recycle your garbage in the correct containers at the marina
- Respect regulations around marine reserves and private islands where disembarking is not permitted

SAILING CONDITIONS

SAILING AREA

From our base at Marina Naviera Balear, Palma de Mallorca, you can explore nearly 300 beaches, hop between smaller islets or get close to nature on Cabrera. This island is home to Cabrera's Archipelago Maritime-Terrestrial National Park and many species of seabirds.

WEATHER

The best time to visit Mallorca is between March to October, although the region has mild season weather all-year round. With 300 sunny days, Mallorca is known for its pleasant climate. The rainy season tends to be between October and December.

DREAM YACHT CHARTER

The average temperature in Mallorca in summer is about 86°F. The sea temperature in Mallorca in summer is about 79°F.

TEMPERATURE

Climate in Mallorca:

- Summer high: The August high is around 86°F
- Winter low: The January low is 46°F

WIND SYSTEMS

The sailing conditions in Mallorca include the Levant, which is an easterly wind that blows in the western Mediterranean and gives great sailing conditions. The region's consistent winds are one of the reasons why sailors love Mallorca.

Sailing is more challenging October to April with the risk of stronger winds. Meanwhile the sirocco, a southerly breeze in spring, and the mistral, a north-westerly in autumn, are tempered by the Gulf of Lion and bring heavy seas.

LOCAL FORECAST

You can find Mallorca specific weather forecasts on the AEMet website and Windfinder.
