AREA GUIDE

LOCAL AREA INTRODUCTION

There may be no better way to explore Trogir's castles, churches, palaces, towers and the rich history on Croatia's Adriatic coast than aboard a yacht. In fact, a Trogir yacht charter starts and ends a short walk from the rich, living history of this UNESCO World Heritage site.

From our base in Marina Baotić, Trogir you'll be right in the heart of a wide variety of islands, old towns, protected parks and some of the best cruising on the Adriatic. The peak summer months for a Trogir yacht charter are July and August. That's when the days are sunny and hot and the water temperatures are ideal for swimming.

The locals love to explore the coast during the months of May and September. The skies are sunny, the temperatures are cooler and there are fewer crowds.

To sail Trogir, you will need a sailing license that is recognized by the local port authorities, or you can hire a skipper. Read our guide to sailing qualifications for more information.

TOP THINGS TO DO IN TROGIR:

1. Sail to Šolta Island in time for sunset: It's the perfect spot to venture out and explore many of the central Dalmatian Islands during your Trogir sailing charter.
2. Swim, Snorkel, dive, and fish off the island of Brac: There are lots of things to do in Brac, as it's one of the larger islands. It has 11 towns and villages and is home to the resorts of Supetar and Bol, both famous for fabulous beaches.
3. Visit the Pakleni Islands: The islands in this small sub-group of the central Dalmatians are known for magnificent beaches, and their old world charm.
4. Go shopping (and dancing) in the picturesque village of Komiza: Komiza is known for its pleasant shops, restaurants, and popular nightclub a short distance from the village center on Kamencia Beach.
5. Walk Trogir's Old City: If you're on a Trogir sailing charter, make sure to take time to walk through the walled city and visit its numerous gothic cathedrals.

SAILING CONDITIONS

SAILING AREA

With a boat rental in Trogir you can sail into the heart of the central Dalmatian Islands just to the south of the busy port of Split on the mainland.

When sailing from our base in Trogir you can also visit remote stunningly beautiful islands where you might be the only boat in the anchorage.

You'll also be able to visit Vis town's historic stone buildings including Garibaldi Palace, as well as its shops and restaurants. There are so many things to do in Vis, you'll soon see why it's one of the jewels of the Dalmatian Islands.

WEATHER

The best time to visit Trogir is between May and October when the climate is sunny, hot and dry. The hottest and most crowded months to visit are July and August.

The average temperature in Trogir in summer is between 78°F and 95°F. The sea temperature in Trogir in summer is between 75°F and 82°F.

TEMPERATURE

Climate in Trogir, Croatia:

- Summer high: The August high is around 87°F
- Winter low: The February low is 39°F

WIND SYSTEMS

The sailing conditions for yacht charters in Trogir are perfect for sailors who actually want to sail in good winds instead of always motoring through calms.

Trogir's prevailing wind in the summer includes the north westerly mistral, which blows between 10 and 25 knots on a regular basis.

The north easterly bura (bora) features gusts that can range between 30 and 50 knots. If the Bura is forecast during your Trogir yacht charter, find a sheltered anchorage.

Meanwhile, the southerly jugo can also bring challenging weather conditions, including rain and wind up to 25 knots.

LOCAL FORECAST

You can find weather forecasts ahead of your Trogir sailing charter from Windguru. The weather is broadcasted on VHF channels 4, 7, 28 and 85 at 6:20am, 1:20pm and 10:20pm every day.
