SAILING CONDITIONS

SAILING AREA

Among the popular itinerary stops during any Phuket yacht charter is Koh Khai Nai, better known as James Bond Island, where “The Man With the Golden Gun” was filmed. Nearby Koh Panyi is a floating village where hundreds of fishermen live. Buy local souvenirs and seafood, then prepare a locally-caught fish dinner on board.

Sailing approximately 28nm southeast of Phuket brings you to the Phi Phi Islands, one of southern Thailand’s favorite tourist destinations. You’ll find stunning anchorages suitable for overnight stays and charming villages that are perfect for lunchtime stops.

WEATHER

The best time for a Thailand sailing charter is from mid-October to mid-April, when the rainy season is finished and all national parks are open. The monsoon season is May through early October, with hot, humid weather and heavy rains.

March is the hottest month in Phuket with an average temperature of 83°F and the coldest is January at 81°F. The most sunshine hours are in April with nine hours of sun each day.

TEMPERATURE

Climate in Phuket:

- Summer high: The March high is around 93°F
- Winter low: The January low is 72°F

WHAT TO PACK

- Soft luggage that you can fold away or roll up - hard suitcases are hard to fit in your cabin and there is nowhere to store them onboard
- Reef-friendly sunblock and sun cream
- Dry bags or zip lock bags to protect your money, cameras and mobiles
- Seasickness bands and tablets are good for novice sailors
- Earplugs and eyeshades are great for light sleepers
- Keep clothing light and remember you will be around water a lot! Don’t forget several swimsuits, hat, sunglasses and an extra beach towel (even though towels are provided)
- When it comes to shoes, you’re likely to be barefoot onboard so pack just one pair for going ashore and some water shoes for reefs
- Leave expensive jewelry, make-up and hair straighteners behind – it’s time to relax!
